

Celebrating the 100 Languages of...
Children and Teachers and Trees: Oh my!

Saturday, September 13, 2025

Camp Meade, Middlesex, VT

You are invited to a RIVET one-day conference Celebrating the 100 Languages of...Children and Teachers and Trees: Oh my! This conference will celebrate the relationships between children and trees and explore materials and media that will give voice to their encounters.

Conference Program

8:00 Early Birds, join us for Optional Yoga in the Grove led by Jen Degen
Please bring your own mat.

8:45 Registration and Treats

Have a treat, chat with friends and make new ones

9:15 Welcome

9:30 Children and Trees in Relationship

Keynote speaker Alison James, author of Maple and Rosemary

10:00 Morning in the Studio: Listening to Trees through Multiple Languages

Participate in one of the following studios led by Vermont artists! Click here to indicate your preferences.

Circle Singing

Jodie Albright

Gelli Printing

Rena Diana

Natural Inks

Rachel Mirus

Clay

Jerry Geier

Journal Making & Writing

Alison James

Paper-making

Laurie Shelton

Drawing

Louise Cadwell

Mixed Media

Angela Sillers

Photography

Jim Squires

12:00 Please bring your own bag lunch

1:00 Experiencing the Woods: Nurturing, Expressing, Deepening our own Encounters with Trees

Take a Walk in the Woods: Relate, Observe, Record, Reflect, Represent

2:30 Open Studios

Visit the studios to view the multiple ways others expressed what they experienced in the woods today

3:00 Regroup/share

Thank-you for joining us and please consider sharing encounters between children and trees (oh my!) on the RIVET website!

3:15 Open Invitation to stay on (and invite your family to join you!) to learn traditional Italian dances with Marie DiCocco and Celest DiPietropaolo

Registration Information

Conference registration is a donation of $50.00. Register here.

All proceeds from this conference will be dedicated to support the RIVET project to bring the Reggio Children Exhibition-Atelier Mosaic of Marks, Words, Material to Vermont in summer 2026. If you are able, please consider contributing more than the conference donation of $50.00. Click here to donate more.

Professional Development Credit Hours

Professional Development credit hours will be available through Northern Lights.

THANK YOU!

We are so grateful to Planetary Arts Institute at Camp Meade for hosting us in this special, beautiful location, to folks at Spring Hill School for supporting us with logistics, to the Vermont artists for donating their time and skills to lead studio sessions, and to you for your support – all to help raise funds to bring the Mosaics of Marks, Words, Material Exhibition-Atelier to educators, families, and young children in Vermont!